THE FOOD LAB

The Food Lab is where all the culinary Research & Development happens. It's in a secret place in the heart of the house, quiet and peaceful where the magic happens—a laboratory where our chefs create the next dishes following technique, seasonality, and trends. There's an ingredient library with hard-to-source gems. A fermentation area. A photography and video studio. Though it's an incubator for our chefs, a few lucky guests will have the chance to sample dishes in the making before they even reach our menus, dine at our Chef's Table, enjoy a wine tasting or a cooking class. This is where the magic happens.

COCOONS
